SEORANG pekerja di kaunter pembayaran stesen minyak menjual kad TnG dengan harga lima kali ganda dari pasaran di Putrajaya kelmarin.

Pekerja kaunter ambil kesempatan jual harga mahal

Kad TnG RM10 dijual harga lima kali ganda

PUTRAJAYA – Taktik seorang pekerja di kaunter pembayaran stesen minyak yang mengaut untung lima kali ganda menjual kad Komunikasi Medan Dekat (NFC) Touch 'n Go (TnG) dalam talian terbongkar kelmarin.

Menteri Perdagangan Dalam Negeri dan Hal Ehwal Pengguna (KPDNHEP), Datuk Seri Alexander Nanta Linggi berkata, pekerja kaunter itu dikesan menjual kad bernilai RM10 (tanpa kredit) pada kadar lima kali ganda.

Sebelum ini orang ramai merungut ketiadaan stok kad itu di pasaran menyukarkan urusan perjalanan kerana kad lama TnG telah tamat tempoh.

"Kesukaran mendapatkan bekalan melalui premis stesen minyak terpilih membongkarkan wujud penjualan kad NFC di beberapa platform online sejak kebelakangan ini dengan harga berlipat kali ganda.

"Kami terima empat aduan rasmi mengenai kad NFC selain mengesan 13 iklan jualan membabitkan beberapa platform dalam talian bagi tempoh April hingga 25 September lalu," katanya dalam satu kenyataan di sini semalam.

Beliau menjelaskan, berdasarkan semakan dan maklumat daripada pengelola platform pasaran dalam talian, sebanyak 11 premis merangkumi kediaman peribadi serta bangunan perniagaan diperiksa berhubung kes sama.

"Pasca pemeriksaan awal, sebanyak enam notis mengikut Seksyen 21 Akta Kawalan Harga dan Anti Pencatutan (AKHAP) 2011 dikeluarkan kepada pihak terbabit antara lain menuntut supaya maklum balas atau penjelasan rasmi dikemukakan kepada Bahagian Penguat Kuasa KPDNHEP.

"Kegagalan berbuat demikian, pihak terbabit boleh dikenakan tindakan mengikut Seksyen 21(5) AKHAP 2011 kerana enggan atau gagal mengemukakan maklum balas," katanya.

Pada masa sama, Alexander berkata, Bahagian Penguat Kuasa KPDNHEP dan pengurusan kanan kementerian seterusnya akan mengadakan pertemuan dengan syarikat TnG yang dijangka berlangsung minggu ini.

Kad NFC TnG dijual lima kali ganda lebih mahal di platform online

Penguat kuasa KPDNHEP melakukan pemeriksaan di seluruh negara berhubung aduan penjualan kad NFC TnG pada harga berlipat ganda.

Kad TnG baharu dengan teknologi NFC membolehkan pengguna melakukan tambah nilai secara dalam talian.

PUTRAJAYA - Kementerian Perdagangan Dalam Negeri dan Hal Ehwal Pengguna (KPDNHEP) mengesan seorang pekerja kaunter pembayaran sebuah stesen minyak yang menjual kad Komunikasi Medan Dekat (NFC) Touch 'n Go (TnG) pada kadar lebih lima kali ganda menerusi platform pasaran dalam talian.

Menterinya, Datuk Seri Alexander Nanta Linggi berkata, harga sekeping kad NFC tanpa sebarang kredit di dalamnya adalah RM10.

"Penjualan kad NFC TnG sejak April tahun ini mengundang polemik dalam kalangan rakyat apabila rata-rata mengadu bahawa ia sukar didapati berikutan bekalan yang terhad di semua saluran seperti diuar-uarkan," katanya.

Menurutnya, bagi tempoh dari April hingga 25 September lalu, Bahagian Penguat Kuasa KPDNHEP menerima empat aduan rasmi mengenai kad NFC, selain mengesan 13 iklan jualan membabitkan beberapa platform dalam talian.

"Berdasarkan semakan dan maklumat pengelola platform pasaran dalam talian, sebanyak 11 premis merangkumi kediaman peribadi serta bangunan perniagaan diperiksa berhubung kes sama," ujarnya.

Beliau berkata, pasca pemeriksaan pula mendapati sebanyak enam notis mengikut Seksyen 21 Akta Kawalan Harga dan Anti Pencatutan (AKHAP) 2011 dikeluarkan, yang antara lain menuntut supaya maklum balas atau penjelasan rasmi perlu dikemukakan kepada kementerian.

"Pihak berkenaan boleh dikenakan tindakan mengikut Seksyen 21(5) AKHAP 2011 kerana enggan atau gagal mengemukakan maklum balas," katanya.

Alexander berkata, pengurusan kanan kementerian akan mengadakan pertemuan dengan syarikat TnG pada minggu ini bagi mendapatkan status kaedah semasa penjualan dan isu kekurangan bekalan kad NFC seperti dikemukakan ramai pengguna.

"Sebarang perkembangan mengenai hasil pertemuan antara KPDNHEP dengan syarikat TnG akan dimaklumkan dari masa ke masa," katanya.

TnG cards being sold for five times their value on online platforms

PUTRAJAYA: Touch 'n Go (TnG) Near-Field Communication (NFC) cards are being sold on online market platforms at exorbitant prices, says the Domestic Trade and Consumer Affairs Ministry.

Minister Datuk Seri Alexander Nanta Linggi said the ministry's enforcement division received four official complaints on the matter and detected 13 card sales advertisements involving several online platforms.

Based on preliminary investigations, he said the sale of TnG NFC cards (on these online platforms) also involved employees at the payment counter of a petrol station.

"The individuals were found to be selling TnG NFC cards that originally cost RM10 each without any credit on it at a rate of more than five times, through online market platforms," he said in a statement.

Nanta said based on checks and information from the managers of the online market platforms, a total of 11 premises including private residences and business buildings were inspected in relation to the case.

He said six notices in accordance with Section 21 of the Price Control and Anti-Profiteering Act had been issued to the parties involved where, among others, they were required to submit an official response or explanation to the ministry's enforcement division.

"Failure to do so and the parties involved may be subject to action according to Section 21(5) of the Act for refusing or failing to submit feedback," he said, Bernama reported.

TnG NFC cards are sold at RM10 at selected petrol stations or through online transactions using the TnG app.

However, the two channels for the sale of the cards have reportedly been experiencing limited supply since April.

Nanta said the ministry was expected to hold a meeting with TnG to obtain an update on the methods of sale of TnG NFC cards as well as on the lack of cards.

The TnG NFC card allows users to top up anytime and anywhere via the Touch 'n Go eWallet application available on mobile devices.

Users of the card and the service are not subject to any surcharge when a top-up is done.
