Sindiket sorok diesel subsidi di kawasan terpencil terbongkar

Sazali (tengah) menunjukkan antara rampasan peralatan pam minyak yang digunakan untuk pemindahan diesel subsidi di sebuah gudang di Rawang pada Isnin.

RAWANG - Kegiatan sindiket seleweng diesel yang berselindung di sebuah gudang haram di sini sejak awal tahun ini terbongkar selepas diserbu 5 Julai lalu.

Timbalan Ketua Pengarah Kastam (Penguatkuasaan dan Pematuhan) Jabatan Kastam Diraja Malaysia (JKDM) Datuk Sazali Mohamad berkata, serbuan kira-kira jam 9 malam itu dijalankan sepasukan anggota Bahagian Penguatkuasaan JKDM Zon 1 Tengah Unit 1.

Menurutnya, pemeriksaan menemui beberapa muatan tangki diesel, tiga tangki skid bersaiz 30,000 liter dan tiga lori bonded yang sudah diubah suai.

"Turut ditemui adalah peralatan pam minyak bagi tujuan penyelewengan diesel bersubsidi dianggarkan 48,600 liter bernilai RM104,490 membabitkan cukai dan duti berjumlah RM19,920," katanya pada sidang akhbar di gudang berkenaan di sini pada Isnin.

Beliau berkata, modus operandi sindiket ialah menjalankan aktiviti pembekalan dan penyimpanan diesel bersubsidi di gudang persendirian yang terletak di kawasan terpencil bagi mengelak dikesan pihak berkuasa.

Katanya, sindiket yang dipercayai aktif sejak awal tahun ini menjadikan gudang ini sebagai lokasi penyimpanan atau transit diesel kerana kedudukannya terlindung dari pandangan awam.

"Dipercayai juga sindiket terbabit menjalankan aktiviti penjualan diesel bersubsidi kepada pihak industri tempatan.

"Berdasarkan maklumat diperolehi, sindiket ini dipercayai membeli diesel bersubsidi pada harga RM2.15 seliter sebelum dijual kepada pemain industri dengan harga RM4 seliter berbanding harga ditetapkan untuk pihak industri iaitu sekitar RM5 seliter," katanya.

Customs bust ring selling subsidised diesel

RAWANG: The Customs Department has crippled a syndicate believed to be hoarding and reselling subsidised diesel following a raid conducted on a warehouse in Jalan Tukang Besi here.

Customs deputy director-general (enforcement and compliance) Datuk Sazali Mohamad said the syndicate was suspected of buying diesel fuel at a subsidised price of RM2.15, which was then resold to industry players at around RM4.

He said this was because industrial players such as factories had to pay the unsubsidised price of diesel fuel at RM5, Bernama reported.

“So, through this syndicate, industry players get diesel at a lower than normal price,” Sazali said at the warehouse here yesterday.

According to him, the raid was carried out by an operations team from the JKDM Central Zone Enforcement Division Unit I at 9pm last Wednesday, but no arrest was made.

“A close inspection of the premises found several loads of diesel tanks, three 30,000-litre skid tanks, and three modified lorries.

“There was also oil pump equipment for siphoning subsidised diesel totalling 48,600 litres with an estimated value of RM104,490 involving taxes and duties of RM19,920,” he said.

He said they did not find any documents for the approval of storing controlled goods and further investigations were being carried out to trace the owners or the syndicate for further action.

“The syndicate used this area as a storage or transit point for the diesel due to its location being far from the public eye. We believe it began operating early this year based on our tracking,” he said.

Sazali added that the actual value of total losses was still under investigation.

He also called on the public to channel any information related to smuggling activities by contacting the Customs Toll-Free Line at 1-800-88-8855 or by heading to the nearest Customs office.

Marine police foil cooking oil smuggling bid in Sabah

KOTA KINABALU: Marine police on the east coast of Sandakan district foiled an attempt to smuggle subsidised cooking oil to neighbouring islands in the Philippines.

However, the smugglers managed to flee after seeing an approaching marine police patrol boat as they were unloading the oil packages stored in sacks at a riverbank at Kampung Sugai Bakau here at about 4.30pm on Sunday.

The smugglers fled towards a swamp along the river, abandoning the cooking oil that was loaded onto a vehicle, marine police sources said.

It was learnt that marine police were patrolling the riverbank area when they came across the group of men unloading goods from the vehicle.

Marine police recovered 50 sacks containing 850 packets of subsidised cooking oil believed to be worth about RM2,125, sources added.

Marine Police Region 4 commander Asst Comm Ahmad

Busted: The truck carrying sacks of cooking oil seized in Sandakan.

Ariffin confirmed that the vehicle concerned was also seized.

The total value of the seizure was estimated at about RM28,000.

He said the case will be handed over to the Sandakan branch of the Domestic Trade and Cost of Living Ministry.
