KOTA BHARU: The Domestic Trade and Cost of Living Ministry has received a total of 7,027 consumer complaints, of which 5,025 were through the Aduan Suri programme nationwide from Jan 12 to June 20.

Deputy Minister Fuziah Salleh said most of the complaints were related to online transactions (2,003), followed by pricing (1,903) and misleading services (1,119).

"In Kelantan alone, 732 complaints were registered, 236 of which were through Aduan Suri.

"Most of the complaints received in Kelantan were related to online transactions (100), pricing (48), controlled goods (24) and other complaints (64)," she said at the launch of the district-level Aduan Suri and Lagu Rakyat Dikir Barat competition yesterday.

The text of her speech was read by the ministry's state deputy director Aswadi Jaafar.

"Consumers and housewives can report any regulatory breaches by traders to the ministry through various channels such as QR Code Aduan Suri or WhatsApp at 019-279 4317/019-848 8000.

"This initiative will create a Malaysian society that is empowered to act," she added. - Bernama
