Perak diesel syndicates on the rise

IPOH: Cases of syndicates selling subsidised diesel in Perak has increased in the first five months of the year, says Datuk Kamalludin Ismail.

The state Domestic Trade and Cost of Living director said this was discovered as it made up a high number of cases reported.

He said enforcement carried out from January until May 14 had resulted in the seizure of over RM2.76mil worth of products, of which RM577,087 was for subsidised diesel.

"Compared to the whole of last year, the seizure of subsidised diesel then was worth only RM315,650.

"With more information from the public and our own intelligence, we have managed to carry out more raids," he told reporters when met during a Hari Raya gathering yesterday.

Kamalludin said several lorries, used to siphon subsidised diesel at petrol stations, were also seized.

He said whenever there was a price increase, the tanks atop these lorries were filled up with diesel and driven to a certain location for storage and later sold at a cheaper price.

"However, we managed to nab these culprits based on public tip-offs and intelligence," he said.
